Tasting Notes

Medium intense golden-yellow with subtle green hues. Big on the nose with intense aromas of the Verdejo variety; hay and ripened tropical fruit. On the palate, it is fresh, fruity, silky, big, consistent, round and balanced. Easy to drink. The perfect for pairing with seafood or salads.

Winemaker Notes

“Selección Especial” means selection at three levels: Selection at the vineyard: every year our winemaker considers age of vine, type of soil and the development of the grapes within the year. Selection of the grape juice: the grape juice considered to be of highest quality is obtained by applying soft pressure at the press. Only a blend of gravity-released, free-run juice and low pressure first press grape juice is used. Selection of the wine: a final tasting is carried out by the winemaker directly from the tanks during and after fermentation in order to make the final selection.
